Local Offer

Local Offer Description

All children are entitled to a broad, balanced curriculum, which is differentiated to meet individual needs and abilities, and to full participation in all school activities regardless of their S.E.N. Children may have SEN throughout, or at any time during their school career.

Teachers take into account in their planning, a child's SEN and the provision made which enables the children to participate effectively in all curriculum and assessment activities, in addition to broader aspects of school life. Every effort will be made to create a secure and happy environment which is structured, stimulating and challenging in a way which ensures that children experience success and feel positive about themselves.
