Sarah Farrell

I offer 15 and 30 hours funded childcare

I am a Childminder located in Consett. I provide children with a loving home environment to develop in.

We go to toddler groups, soft play, nature walks, and various other outings.

The children have the opportunity to play in a large enclosed garden as well as messy play, painting and role play to name a few activities.

All children are allowed to experience various form of creative play allowing their own individual personality to shine through.
