

County Durham Families Information Service

Challenging Behaviour Foundation

We provide information and support to parents and carers of individuals with severe learning disabilities whose behaviour challenges.

We have information sheets, DVDs, a newsletter and a website. Information sheets can be ordered from our office or downloaded from our website.

Support is provided through email for parents and professionals, and telephone or email support for families.

Resources are free of charge to family carers and charged at a reasonable rate to professionals.

Our vision is for anyone with severe learning disabilities whose behaviour challenges to have the same life opportunities as everyone else. We work to improve understanding of challenging behaviour, empower families with information and support, and help others to provide better services and more opportunities.
