OCD Action

We are a national charity for people with Obsessive Compulsive Disorder (OCD) and the related disorders such as Body Dysmorphic Disorder (BDD), Compulsive Skin Picking (CSP), and Trichotillomania. We all know how isolating OCD can be, it can make you feel trapped and cut off from the rest of the world. Finding the right support and building up a support network can make a massive difference; it can give you the tools and the strength to fight back and make you feel that you are not facing OCD on your own.

It can get better and we can help.
