Natalie Wile

Availability from July 2021

I am a Childminder located in Willington, I work together with another registered childminder and our assistant and between us all we have many years of experience as well as up to date training and qualification certificates relevant to childcare as well as all of us being paediatric first aid trained.

We provide childcare and education to the highest of standards and also offer funded places for 2 year olds via the play and learn scheme as well as the 15 and 30 hours free nursery education for 3 and 4 year olds.

More information about our setting can be found on our website or you can contact us for more information.
