The Brockwell Centre - Pelton Fell Community Partnership

We provide a state of the art community building in Pelton Fell. Opened in 2009 the Brockwell Centre is easily accessible and features several meeting rooms with free WIFI and internet access and capacity for up to 80 people.

We provide a number of activities and groups for both adults and young people, including health and fitness sessions, adult learning, family learning, a community cafe, religious groups, youth clubs, youth activities and activities for the elderly.
