Hetton Home Care Services

We provide domiciliary care, often called home care and our services include:

- personal care (assistance with washing, dressing, toileting, getting in and out of bed and prompting medication)
- domestic care (housework, laundry and shopping)
- companionship and community support for carers (taking the cared for person out or sitting in with the cared for person to allow their carer to have a break)
- support for children with disabilities and their families (caring for the disabled child to relieve the family)
- leisure (assisting to access leisure activities)

This list is not exhaustive, if you cannot find what you need please contact us, we may be able to help or know someone who can.
