The Hive is an independent arts organisation based in the heart of Shrewsbury town centre, working across Shropshire, Telford & Wrekin and the sub-region to inspire young people through music and media.

Working with musicians and media artists, the Hive aims to give young people opportunities to learn, develop skills, have fun and be creative. The impressive facilities at the Centre include an adaptable sound-proofed theatre and workshop space with a capacity of 100, two fully equipped media studios, a comfortable meeting room, gallery area, coffee shop and courtyard garden.

Alongside a varied in-house programme of workshops and events, the Hive runs successful outreach projects across Shropshire and the wider region, working with a number of Schools, local organisations and various partners throughout the County.

The Hive is a vibrant centre offering live gigs, film screening, training, toddler groups, workshops and a create environment for people to mix and share ideas.
