

Pupil Support Service – SEN Teaching Support

A specialist team of experienced and dedicated teachers providing statutory and non-statutory SEN support to Kensington and Chelsea schools since 1990.

PSS TEACHERS:

- High quality specialist teaching
- Baseline assessments
- Planning, monitoring, reviewing and tracking progress
- Range of specialist skills and additional qualifications, including dyslexia and dyscalculia
- Individual Support Teaching (IST) for pupils with EHCPs
- Advising and supporting TAs
- Additional support to quality first teaching and school interventions to facilitate progress of pupils with SEN
- Working in partnership with schools enabling effective delivery and high quality outcomes

Pupil: "She explained well what I didn't understand. Resources helped with my confidence too."

PSS SKILLS:

- Qualified teachers with extensive experience of SEN support including:
  - Specific learning difficulties (SpLD) Dyslexia and Dyscalculia
  - MLD (Moderate Learning Difficulties)
  - SLD (Severe Learning Difficulties)
  - Down Syndrome
  - Global Learning Delay
  - SLCN (Speech, Language and Communication Needs)
  - Autism
- Building self-esteem and confidence leading to meta-cognitive awareness
- Providing multi-sensory cumulative approach to supporting children

RBKC Headteacher:
"PSS supports our staff to better perform their supportive role."

Parent: "the PSS teacher helped my daughter understand more maths than ever before."

WHY INVOLVE SPECIALISTS?

"A school should always involve a specialist where a pupil continues to make little or no progress or where they continue to work at levels substantially below those expected of pupils of a similar age despite evidence-based SEN support delivered by appropriately trained staff." (SEND Code of Practice pp102)

For more information, view our page in the Local Offer.

RBKC SENDCo: "PSS are an experienced, well established team. This enables them to ensure the diverse needs of children are met, working closely and flexibly with schools."

The service can be purchased by schools in half day blocks (see SLA).
