Recently, many people are getting unwell because of Coronavirus.

To keep people safe, we need to stay at home.

Schools and many places are closed, and this includes short breaks.

When short breaks are closed, I will stay at home.

I will not be going to short breaks on the weekends.

It is okay to not go to short breaks for a little while.

The adults will tell me when short breaks open again.
It is okay to be worried or feel anxious when things are different.

When I feel worried or anxious, I can talk to the adults.

It might be a little while before I can go to short breaks again, and I will be okay.
