What have you been doing or are looking forward to?

Rachael – Recently went to see a performance of Tutu Trouble with some Gig Buddies at the Fairfield Halls in Croydon. It was a great success and the group had a great evening. www.fairfield.co.uk

Sedley – Went to the Eastbourne Airshow with a group from Imagine. This time he took his walker with him which has a seat included within the design. It was very useful when he wanted to stop and enjoy the show. www.eastbourneairshow.com

Sedley told Leisure Linkers that Southern railway are really good at assisting him when he travels by train to the coast. Staff contact the station that he is due to get off at ahead of him arriving and a member of staff is waiting with a ramp to help him off the train. www.southernrailway.com/travel-information/travel-help/assisted-travel

It is recommended that you let Southern Railway know in advance where you will be travelling to and from so they can assist you as best they can.

Andrew – Said he’d visited Lincoln and enjoyed seeing the cathedral and windmill.

Rachael – Spoke about going to Whitstable in Kent with her family. While they were there they walked along the seafront to the harbour, bought icecreams and ate traditional fish and chips on the beach.

• Also, apart from the Thursday evening ‘Advanced’ session at Selhurst, all the sessions are indoors so you’ll be warm and dry!

So if you haven’t been before or you are a support worker looking to give people new opportunities, please email Michael Harrington, the ‘Palace For Life’ Disability Manager on MichaelHarrington@palaceforlife.org, 020 8768 6047 or 07808 323039 to book places on the sessions or if you have any questions.

Accessibility at Fairfield Halls

As part of the transformation of Fairfield Halls we have put access at the heart of everything we plan. Our ticket desk, toilets, performance and exhibition spaces are accessible to all, as are the cafes, bars and restaurants across the venue.

Access Scheme
Customers with special seating or access requirements can join our Access Scheme, which enables us to provide the best possible service and seats for customers with accessibility needs. It’s free to join and we provide members with a personal service to tell them what’s coming up, as well as information about concessionary tickets. If you receive PIP/DLA/Attendance Allowance or are in receipt of a Certificate of Visual Impairment, you may be entitled to a reduction on your ticket price or a free essential companion or carer ticket.

Proof of eligibility is required to join. Membership lasts for the duration of your DLA/PIP/Attendance allowance and we may need to contact you to confirm eligibility if you renew your membership.

You can apply online or email access@bhlive.org.uk for more information.
