Get down on your child’s level

Follow your child’s lead in play

Comment on what he/she is doing using simple language

Create opportunities for them to talk by pausing and not asking questions

Play with your child and label what he/she is interested in

Repeat what they have said and add an extra word