Repetition is key to developing their understanding of words and label what he/she is interested in.

Point and name things that your child is interested in.

Speak slowly and stress key words e.g. go and fetch your coat.

Simplify your language if they have not understood.

Use visual cues (e.g., pointing, gestures, pictures).