Introduction

The Children and Young People’s Resource Guide has been developed by Hackney Children and Young People’s Services to assist professionals working within the London Borough of Hackney in navigating the diverse range of services for children and families with support needs.

Hackney is committed to the principle that the most effective way of improving outcomes and life chances for all children, young people and families is through the provision of high quality, accessible universal services. While there are times when specialist expertise is required, most needs for the majority of children can be met in universal settings such as children’s centres, schools and GP surgeries.

This guide provides information as to how health, early years, education, Children’s Social Care, Young Hackney and adult services are working together to promote coordinated service delivery for children and families living in the borough. Our primary aim is that there should be ‘no wrong door’ for referrers seeking additional support for children.

The guide is split into two main sections:

1. Information on the path a child might take through services and how professionals can support this, with a particular focus on safeguarding and education, as well as multi-agency guidance on working with children and families. This includes Hackney’s Child Wellbeing Framework and Common Support Framework, information on the processes for children and young people with additional needs, ‘Think Family’ guidance and information on joint working between Children’s Social Care and schools.

2. A comprehensive directory of services, from health through to education and youth services, as well as adult services in recognition that much of the work undertaken with children also involves work with the adults around them. The directory includes contact details, a service description, access criteria and referral processes for each service.
The Hackney Child Wellbeing Framework focuses upon child and family needs, not thresholds for services. It does, however, attempt to give an indication of what might be an appropriate approach to responding to child and family needs by defining three levels:

- Universal – a response by universal services, often working individually
- Universal Plus and Universal Partnership Plus – a response by universal services working together in universal settings and sometimes bringing additional targeted resources into a multi-agency partnership plan to both assess and address concerns
- Complex/high risk – a response that requires high level specialist services, often governed by statutory frameworks, to take the lead role.

Universal services that meet universal needs include schools and childcare providers, children’s centres, health visiting, school nursing, GPs, play services, Young Hackney, police, housing and the voluntary and community sector.

Some of the targeted services that can support universal services include family support services, First Steps, Young Hackney, Special Educational Needs, behaviour and educational support, speech and language therapy, short breaks and support for transitions, and voluntary and community services.

When needs are numerous or sufficiently intense to require a Universal Plus or Universal Partnership Plus response, this will often require a written plan as part of the Common Support Framework, Key Worker Action Plan (step across) or a Child and Family Assessment (step down) so that the family and all workers involved are aware of what outcomes we hope to achieve, who is responsible for the actions to achieve them and how we will know when we are successful.

When children and families have complex needs or are high risk, specialist support will sometimes be provided by Children’s Social Care. This is indicated in the table by using a bold typeface. These are often situations where the child is at risk because of deficits in parenting or carer capacity. Other specialist services include Young Hackney, Child and Adolescent Mental Health Services and specialist disability services (social care and/or health).

The pathway and processes for responding to need are described in the Resource Guide.

It is important to remember that each child and family will have a unique set of needs and strengths. The Child Wellbeing Framework is a guide and is not intended to replace professional knowledge, experience and discretion.

Professionals should be alert to the likely cumulative effect on children and young people of multiple concerns and consider whether the presence of numerous indicators (about the parenting being provided) amounts to the child’s needs being neglected.

First Access & Screening Team (FAST)

Vision and Purpose

FAST acts as Hackney’s local Multi-Agency Safeguarding Hub (MASH) and provides a delivery framework that enables partnership agencies to work together to support and safeguard children by sharing and analysing information that is held about them.

FAST provides a space in which agencies can access their client data systems, balancing the need for privacy with the need to share information safely. By doing this, FAST aims to identify need and risk by building a full picture of the child and their family.

Hackney FAST intends to provide a proportionate, timely and coordinated approach to all children in need and/or at risk within the Borough through effective partnership working that places the child at the centre of decision making and better ensure that the right help is identified first time. Screening activity in FAST is undertaken by Children & Young People’s Services (CYPS) professionals and supported by co-located partners from police, probation and health services who work alongside CYPS to share information. Screening activity is further enhanced by the strong local interface with the Safer London Foundation and Missing Children Social Worker. This joined up approach to information sharing enables proportionate and timely decisions to be made about the type and level of services children need. Additionally, it facilitates timely access to resources including the allocation mechanisms of the Children Centre Multi-Agency Team (MAT) meetings (see page 17) and the Children and Young People’s Partnership Panel (CYPPP) (see page 18).

The Team

FAST sits under the umbrella of services within Access, Assessment, Youth Justice and Family Support Services within Hackney’s Children and Young People’s Services Directorate. The team comprises of CYPS staff who are co-located with multi-agency colleagues.

How FAST works

The FAST has five core functions:

- screen and allocate child protection referrals (within 24 hours)
- research & provide information ‘hand off’ reports to professionals working with children and young people as necessary
- facilitate access to services for children and families that need them
- provide advice and guidance to professionals and members of the public
- operate a duty system for ‘walk in’ clients and home visiting.

FAST is a single point of contact for professionals and members of the public seeking advice, information and/or who need to make a referral for a child/young person in need of help or protection. Our multi-agency team provide a rapid response service to child protection concerns ensuring swift decision making and allocation to Hackney’s Children’s Social Care Assessment Service as required.

FAST will undertake screening activities, including home visits where appropriate, to assist decision making for early help referrals where little is known about the child’s home life and where no immediate safeguarding concerns are evident. Such visits will be undertaken jointly with the Health Visitors located in FAST for children under 5 years of age where this is practicable. The purpose of such visits is to better understand the type and level of support needed to improve a child or family’s outcomes.

Areas of risk including missing children, child sexual exploitation, gang involvement, offending and antisocial behaviour are tracked and monitored. Schools will be informed of serious incidents involving their students or specific community risks as necessary and advised of and linked to the allocated or lead professional working with the child, young person or their family.

A manager will make a decision in relation to all child protection referrals within 24 hours of receipt. If a child protection enquiry is initiated, consent to obtain information is not required from the child’s parent(s) if doing so would place the child at further risk of harm, interfere with a criminal investigation or cause undue delay.

In all cases where checks are undertaken without parental consent there will be a clearly recorded management decision on a child’s file explaining why this was appropriate.

All non-urgent referrals are expected to have decisions made within three working days. In making decisions about non-urgent referrals, the team will always attempt to collaborate with families and professionals holding important information about a child or family’s circumstances and will aim to achieve this within a timescale not exceeding seven working days. The safety and well-being of children and young people will always be at the centre of decision making.

The following pages include information about how to access early help services in Hackney. Early help services across Hackney are comprehensive and integrated across partner agencies including Children and Young People’s Services (CYPS), Hackney Learning Trust, schools, children’s centres, GPs and health colleagues as well as service providers in the voluntary and community sector.

Hackney’s early help offer recognises and responds to the fact that children and young people may experience problems and difficulties at any point throughout their childhood and adolescence. The early help offer builds upon the universal services already available to all Hackney children and young people and outlines the targeted offer, ‘Universal Partnership Plus’, which is designed to reduce or prevent problems from escalating or becoming entrenched.

Targeted services focus on children, young people and their families who may need support either through a single service or through a multi-agency response. They work with families where there are identified concerns and without additional, targeted support, the child may not achieve good outcomes and reach their full potential.

Our approach is based on the view that help provided early on is critical to prevent escalation to the point where statutory interventions may be required. Hackney is committed to strategic and collaborative working across agencies through practice that empowers families and helps them to develop the capacity to resolve their own problems.

Our services provide a wide range of evidence-based interventions to empower families and facilitate positive change whilst maximising access to opportunities that build resilience and aspiration.
Early Help Services
Common Support Framework

The Common Support Framework (CSF) is Hackney’s response to the need to provide appropriate, integrated and effective support for families in the most efficient way possible.

It incorporates elements of, and learning from, the Common Assessment Framework (CAF), but places the emphasis upon the delivery plan(s) and outcomes rather than information gathering and assessments that may be repetitive or duplicate work across agencies.

It is designed to bring families closer to the ideal of ‘no wrong door’ and to eliminate unnecessary bureaucracy for practitioners.

It consists of three interlinking elements:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Multi-Agency Information Form</th>
<th>Assessment of need</th>
<th>Delivery and review plans</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Contains relevant details about all members of the family e.g. names, addresses, D.O.B., schools, ethnicity etc. | • Any valid holistic assessment of need including:
• CAF
• Initial Assessment
• Pastoral Support Plan (PSP)
• ASSET
• ONSET
• Young Hackney Assessment | A form with specific outcomes and review targets.
To be used to ensure that multi-agency working is coordinated. |

How will this affect out of borough working?

Hackney endorsed the Pan-London CAF Protocol because it is committed to the principle of working in partnership to ensure that administrative boundaries do not negatively affect the provision of appropriate services to children, young people and families.

Early Help Multi-Agency Panels

There are a number of multi-agency panels that bring providers together to coordinate the delivery of early help services to children and their families. The table below provides information in respect of the range of meetings and panels that take place involving children’s centres, schools, Children’s Social Care and other partners.

MAT Meeting: For children aged 0-5 years (Multi-Agency Team Meeting)

- Occur fortnightly in each strategic children’s centre.
- Chaired by a Quality Improvement Partner (QIP) who is a qualified social worker employed by Hackney Learning Trust primarily but not exclusively.
- Focus on children under 6 years of age and their families, with two or more needs or agency involvement, who would benefit from coordinated early help.
- Attended by a range of professionals who work with children at the Early Years Foundation Stage including midwives, health visitors, children’s centre family support teams, speech and language therapists and First Steps.

Referrals: Email MATcoordinator@learningtrust.co.uk

If CYPS is working with a family and a referral is made to MAT then MAT will communicate directly with the named worker/unit for further information. When referrals are made to MAT, the referrer will have sought written consent from the parent who has agreed that checks may be completed.

MAT Referral Process

1. MAT referral received
   - Information request response sent to MAT Coordinator
   - MAT chair will make decision on appropriate intervention at MAT meeting

2. MAT Coordinator processes referral and obtains consent where this has been omitted

The Troubled Families programme supports the identification of and work with families with multiple issues meeting a number of set criteria, which may be preventing each member of the family meeting their full potential and resulting in the need for costly interventions. The guide below demonstrates the criteria for the programme which has now been expanded. More information on Troubled Families can be found in the service directory section on page 111.

‘Think Family’ Process and Action Record

Principle statement

Hackney is committed to a whole family approach, in which all services working with a child or other family members work effectively in partnership to identify potential short and long term risks and vulnerabilities and ensure a coordinated and integrated approach. Our whole family approach focuses on prevention and early intervention to secure the best long term outcomes for children, young people and adult family members.

This process and action record has been developed to support all those who have front-line contact with service users. It is designed to improve identification, signposting and referrals of families and individuals who need additional support. It will help staff to be aware of the needs and vulnerabilities of other family members and to feel confident taking decisions about how to act.

Aims of this process and action form

1. Staff ‘think family’ and are confident identifying early and responding appropriately in a coordinated way to risks and issues which affect all members of the household.

2. Staff are confident assessing which risks constitute a safeguarding issue or which require a lower level referral or signposting response.

Risk factors and issues

The list below provides some examples of risk factors and issues that should raise concern about a family. This list is not exhaustive: staff are encouraged to use their professional judgement.

- Child not regularly attending school
- Suspected domestic violence
- Family mental health issues
- Alcohol and substance misuse
- Adult worklessness
- Child frequently absconding from home
- Dangerous or unsanitary living conditions
- Poor health
- Social isolation
- Suspected criminal behaviour and/or gang involvement.
How to use

This form is meant to help decision making and ensure that children’s, adults’ and families’ additional needs are identified and addressed at the earliest opportunity. It is not intended to replace professional judgement or supervision. The form should be stored securely in the service user’s file. Any questions should be addressed to your line manager or FAST see page 98.

Primary School Children with Additional Support Needs

Primary schools are at the heart of local communities and play an important role in their neighbourhoods. They have day-to-day contact with children and families and will often be best placed to provide early help. Integrated throughout all of their work is a dynamic and continual assessment of risk and need involving every member of the school community.

The majority of children and families will not require any additional formal support, but for those who do, a discussion at the school-based and led multi-agency planning and review forum would be the first step unless it is evident that there are child protection concerns which need an immediate referral to Children’s Social Care.

Most schools refer to this school-led forum as their Multi-Agency Planning (MAP) meeting. It is a process to support the Special Educational Needs Coordinator (SENCO) in managing the identification, coordination and review of support and interventions for pupils with additional needs.

The MAP is a high level planning meeting where the school and partners work together to prioritise, implement and review universal and targeted support arrangements. This is so the SENCO does not have to do this alone but with the benefit of other perspectives from representatives of key partner agencies. For some pupils the MAP will help to identify an intervention strategy. This will involve identifying which agency or agencies should come together to develop an action plan detailing who is to do what and when.

Often this will involve a Pastoral Support Plan (PSP) which is a school-based, young person-centred approach to address the inclusion of young people with challenging behaviour from a range of perspectives. They are designed to support young people who are at risk of permanent exclusion or young people who are at risk of becoming disaffected through repeated fixed-term exclusions.

Targets are set for both the young person and for the range of agencies involved with the young person. Key to this process is the regular review of the PSP that enables close monitoring of the young person within the school environment.

In most cases, following review, these interventions will be sufficient to make progress towards the identified outcomes. However, there are some children who, because of personal, family or environmental factors, will be unable to benefit from these early responses. Meeting their greater needs may require more comprehensive approaches and possibly more creative solutions. There is also a need to ensure that as more services are involved with a young person, different agency responses do not overlap or conflict.

If after reviewing the interventions, the school believes this to be the case, they can refer, with parental consent, to a MAT or CYPPP via a referral to the First Access & Screening Team. To refer, e-mail a CAF or Multi-Agency Information Form securely to FAST@hackney.gov.uk

If you need to speak with someone about a referral to FAST, please call 020 8356 5500 or 020 8356 4844.

Support for vulnerable adolescents

The following pages outline support for young people when they go missing from home or care, and information about multi-agency processes related to young people identified as at risk of child sexual exploitation or demonstrating harmful sexual behaviour.

Information is also included related to radicalisation and violent extremism and what to do if you have concerns that a child/young person is becoming radicalised.

Children’s Rights Service

The Children’s Rights Service incorporates the Children’s Rights Officer and the Independent Return Home Interviewer to offer advocacy (primarily for looked after children and care leavers) and support to young people regarding their complaints and independent return from missing interviews.

Advocacy

The Children’s Rights Officer is a trained advocate who will offer confidential support and guidance to a young person to help them make their views clear to those they are involved with or provide support to them if they have an issue. The Children’s Rights Officer will liaise with both the service and the young person to ensure they have a positive experience of Hackney.

Independent Return Home Interviews

Children who go missing do so for a wide range of reasons and will often feel alone and vulnerable, and afraid of getting into trouble when they return. Sometimes they do not understand the risks that they face when they go missing and may not see others have been worried.

When a child returns from a missing episode, they must be offered an independent return interview which should take place (where possible) within 72 hours after the child has returned.

The independent return interview provides an opportunity to uncover information that can help protect children from the risk of going missing again, from risks they may have been exposed to while missing or from risk factors in their home.

The Independent Return Home Interviewer provides independent return interviews for children that have been missing from home or care.

The interview will have broadly three elements:

1. Current situation
   Exploring with the young person how they feel about their current situation and whether they feel safe, hoping primarily to uncover their reasons for running away.

2. The missing episode
   Exploring where they went, who they were with, how they got there and what happened. This could inform our understanding of the young person’s vulnerabilities and risks. The interviewer will also explore the young person’s experience of, and feelings about, returning from being missing.

3. Future planning
   Trying to engage the young person in thinking about the future and how they can prevent further missing episodes. This will involve listening to them about things they would like to change and offering to help them to communicate this as necessary to others. It will also involve helping the young person to understand the risks associated with going missing and discussing alternative solutions. They will be offered a leaflet with advice and helplines, however, where any safeguarding concerns have been identified a referral will be made into FAST.

To contact the Children’s Rights Service or to make a referral please email ChildrensRights@hackney.gov.uk or call 020 8356 2444.

Missing Children – Process Flowchart

The following flowchart shows the Children’s Social Care (CSC) process for children missing from home (not allocated to CSC).

1. Contact and Referral recorded on Mosaic AND missing episode recorded

   - Child allocated to CSC
     - FAST notified of missing episode (and return) via Police P78
     - FAST to notify the Social Work Unit who are responsible for assessing the risk to the child and progressing as appropriate.
     - See: Children’s Social Care Process for Children allocated to Children’s Social Care

   - Child not allocated to CSC
     - Notify Health Representative in FAST
     - FAST manager screens the P78 report and assesses level of risk to the child to determine if an immediate referral to CSC is needed or whether a referral to community based services would be more appropriate

2. FAST notified of missing episode (and return) via Police P78

   - FAST will make a decision based on risk, current agency involvement and the previous contact with the service as to how to move this case forward and provide the best possible support for the child

   - FAST will contact the family to discuss proposed actions and to advise parents/carers of return interview service

3. Details of returned child are handed off to Independent Return Home Interviewer who will offer an independent return interview

   - ACCEPTED
     - FAST allocates tasks to Independent Return Home Interviewer/Trusted Adult on Mosaic
     - Summary of return interview saved on child’s file AND actions progressed by Independent Return Home Interviewer/relevant agencies

Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE) and Harmful Sexual Behaviour (HSB)

Child Sexual Exploitation (CSE) describes particular kinds of concerning sexual transactions that young people experience. Sexual exploitation of children and young people under 18 involves exploitative situations, contexts and relationships where young people (or a third person or persons) receive ‘something’ (e.g. food, accommodation, drugs, alcohol, cigarettes, affection, gifts, money) as a result of performing, and/or others performing on them, sexual activities.

Child sexual exploitation can occur through use of technology without the child’s immediate recognition, for example the persuasion to post sexual images on the internet/mobile phones with no immediate payment or gain. In all cases those exploiting the child/young person have power over them by virtue of their age, gender, intellect, physical strength and/or economic or other resources. Involvement in exploitative relationships are characterised in the main by the child or young person’s limited availability of choice resulting from their social, economic and/or emotional vulnerability. Violence, coercion and intimidation are common.

Multi-Agency Planning (MAP) Meetings

Where there are significant concerns that a young person is at risk of sexual exploitation, a Multi-Agency Planning (MAP) meeting chaired by and held at Children and Young People’s Services may be convened. Professionals in MAP meetings assess the young person’s level of risk and devise a plan of intervention.

Hackney Children’s Social Care have recently established an innovative MAP process to support and address the behaviour of young people who exhibit harmful sexual behaviour (HSB). Some have experienced CSE themselves, may have been coerced into such behaviour, been a bystander to CSE or a lead protagonist. Interventions will address needs holistically and focus on attitudes to sex and relationships.

Multi-Agency Sexual Exploitation (MASE) meetings

All children and young people subject to MAP meetings are monitored at monthly Multi-Agency Sexual Exploitation meetings. These take an overview of CSE and HSB within Hackney and involve a wide range of agencies, including the Police, education and health professionals, as well as CYPS staff in Children’s Social Care, Youth Justice and youth work. MASE is working to ensure a focus not only on young people at risk of/experiencing CSE but also perpetrators and young people who exhibit harmful sexual behaviour to ensure appropriate strategies and interventions are in place.

To contact the MASE Chair please email: MASE@hackney.gov.uk

If you have concerns that a child or young person is at risk of CSE or HSB and they are not open to CYPS, your first point of contact should be the First Access & Screening Team (FAST).

If you would like to discuss concerns about the risk of CSE or HSB for a child or young person you are working with, please contact the relevant social work unit who can arrange for a child sexual exploitation or harmful sexual behaviour MAP meeting to be convened.

Prevent – Radicalisation and violent extremism

Radicalisation is the process by which individuals come to support terrorism or violent extremism. The Prevent programme in Hackney provides practical help to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism and ensure they are given appropriate advice and support. Prevent works with a wide range of sectors (including education, criminal justice, faith, charities, online and health) where there are risks of radicalisation that need to be responded to.

There is no single profile or set of behaviours that can let us know whether a person is being radicalised. However some of these behaviours may be indicators of radicalisation:

- openly anti-Christian, anti-Muslim and anti-Semitic words and behaviour.
- expression of far-right racist views
- expression of extreme homophobic views
- producing artwork or graffiti depicting acts of violence, particularly associated with violent extremist violence.
- a conviction that their religion or culture is under threat and treated unjustly.
- a tendency to look for conspiracy theories and distrust of mainstream media.
- mental health issues should not be considered a factor in isolation, but can exacerbate other vulnerabilities mentioned above.

For some young people changes in their online profiles, including their profile image or name, can reflect the fact that they are beginning to associate with extremist ideas. Young people may even run two online identities, one their ‘normal’ or old self, the other an extremist identity, often in another name.

The following have also been found to contribute to young people joining certain groups supporting terrorist related activity:

- ideology and politics
- provocation and anger (grievance)
- need for protection
- youth rebellion
- seeking family substitutes, friends and community
- seeking status and identity
- a distrust of western media reporting.

None of the above are conclusive in themselves and should not be considered in isolation but in conjunction with the particular circumstances and any other signs of radicalisation.

The Prevent referral process uses existing collaboration between Hackney Council and its key partners Hackney Learning Trust, Hackney Homes, the Metropolitan Police and other partners such as Probation, Homerton Hospital NHS Foundation Trust and the local community to:

- identify vulnerable individuals at risk of being drawn into violent extremism
- assess the nature and extent of the risk
- develop the most appropriate support for the individuals concerned.

The outcome of the Prevent referral will be to support those vulnerable individuals to ensure that those at risk have access to a support package tailored to meet their needs ranging from mainstream services such as health and education through to specialist mentoring or faith guidance and wider diversionary activities.
Channel process – support for people at risk of becoming involved in extremism

Channel is a supportive multi-agency process designed to safeguard those individuals who may be vulnerable to being drawn into any form of terrorism. It is about early intervention to protect and divert people away from the risk they may face at an early opportunity.

A multi-agency meeting, called a Channel panel, chaired by the Head of Safer Communities, decides on the most appropriate action to support the individual after considering their circumstances, allocates action to nominated leads and monitors progress/outcomes.

If you have concerns that a child/young person you are working with is becoming radicalised or groomed into violent extremism please contact one of the following:

Lisa Aldridge, Service Manager, Safeguarding and Reviewing Team: Lisa.Aldridge@hackney.gov.uk or 020 8356 6164.

Schools and Childcare

The following pages include information about safeguarding in schools, the Social Work in Schools project and processes for accessing childcare.

Information is also included in this section about Hackney’s Local Offer for children and young people with Special Educational and Disabilities (SEND).

Safeguarding – Partnership Working Guidance for Schools and Children’s Social Care (CSC)

The following ‘good practice guidance’ has been created to clarify what is and can be expected of Children’s Social Care (CSC) and of schools. This is to ensure the best possible outcomes for children and ensure that our communication and joint work to safeguard children and young people in Hackney is robust and as effective as possible.

For schools that are participating in the Social Work in Schools (SWiS) project, a Senior Social Worker will be the main point of contact between schools and CSC. The Senior Social Worker will identify with schools in partnership, children who need additional help at the earliest stage. The Senior Social Worker will plan and implement interventions for children and families and supervise the team delivering this service. Children attending schools where the SWiS project is in operation that are referred to CSC via other routes will be diverted to this project and the team will work with the whole family even if siblings attend other schools. Children who live in neighbouring boroughs who schools are worried about will be considered by the project and signposted to the correct service.

<td>Remember that in a crisis or in using statutory powers, the way in which we treat parents will set a tone, immediately and in the longer term, for how professionals work with them and will affect how we can expect them to work with us and schools in return.</td>
<td>If there is any doubt about whether a referral to CSC is appropriate, speak with your safeguarding lead and if CSC advice is needed please consult with CSC’s First Access &amp; Screening Team on 020 8356 5500.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>When requesting information from school in writing, please do not mark letters ‘urgent’. If you need urgent information call the school. Also it’s unhelpful for schools and counterproductive for us as it means they feel they have less time to gather information that allows for a meaningful response.</td>
<td>When making referrals to CSC (initially by telephone and followed by the CSC referral form) ensure that all appropriate details are shared – for both child/children and parents/carers, as well as full details of concerns, what has been shared/heard/witnessed, by whom and when. It is also very important to inform parents that a referral to CSC has been made – unless it is determined that there is a very good reason not to do so. This will assist greatly in terms of continued interaction between school, family and CSC.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Prioritise responses for information from CSC, in order to optimise the level of support that can be made available to the child and to ensure that intervention is planned and responsive to need. If school staff learn of an urgent child protection concern they should feel comfortable with contacting CSC by telephone to discuss further.</td>

<td>School’s responsibilities (continued)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>--------------------------------------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>When requesting information from schools, tell them why you are working with the family. Remember that we are likely to be involved in a child’s life for a relatively short time, whereas schools will have an ongoing monitoring and support function. The more we tell schools about the nature of our involvement, the better the quality of response and the more able the school are to recognise and respond to safeguarding concerns in the future.</td>
<td>As above, ensure that the information that is shared with CSC is full and accurate, so that the most effective intervention with the family can be determined and is based on clear facts and available information. It’s helpful to give CSC information not just about the concerning issues but also a general picture of a child’s attendance, punctuality, attainment, SEN status, hygiene, whether they appear unduly hungry or inappropriately dressed for the weather, who brings the child to and collects them from school (if primary age), interactions between child and peers/staff/parents, interactions between parents and staff, any history of concerns around injuries/absences for which there isn’t a good explanation, any concerns around parents’ presentation. Also helpful is to give the names, numbers and relationships of the emergency contact people from school records.</td>
<td>When working alongside schools, ensure that they have access to you and your colleagues and be reliable in terms of visits, core groups etc. There will at times be professional disagreements around thresholds and intervention but maintaining an open and respectful relationship means issues can more easily be resolved. Keep school staff advised at the earliest possible opportunity re. proposed meeting dates, and also about any meeting cancellations.</td>
<td>Re. Child Protection Conferences and Children in Need meetings/core groups – working together with CSC to share information is vitally important in terms of the best possible outcomes for the child. Attendance at such meetings is required in order to share relevant information and agree plans, but where this may not be possible, a report should be submitted so that the core group has the fullest information to inform further intervention. However, the dialogue that takes place between professionals will contribute greatly to positive outcomes for the child.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Children’s Social Care responsibilities (continued)</td>
<td>School’s responsibilities (continued)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>--------------------------------------------------</td>
<td>--------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>When closing down involvement, reiterate why we have been involved and explain what has been done and importantly any achievements the family have made. Explain the reason for closing the case, explain what the plan is, including any actions we’ve agreed with and for the family and professionals.</td>
<td>Consider the differing roles between schools/education and CSC. Educational involvement with Hackney pupils will be long-term whereas CSC will undertake a specific piece of work and determine closing involvement at an appropriate juncture when the issues within the family have been addressed and children are deemed to be safe from harm. Be prepared to challenge from a professional perspective if it appears that the determination to close may not be appropriate or is premature.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>If seeking to challenge decisions as above, it would be expected that in the first instance, dialogue would take place between the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL) in school and the allocated consultant social worker, in order to clarify decisions that have been reached. If this does not prove effective, then the matter may be raised with the head teacher or principal in school, who may wish to consult further with either HLT or the appropriate service/group manager in CSC.</td>
<td>Be clear with schools on how they re-refer if safeguarding concerns arise again that require a statutory social work response. Remember staff will change and children may move schools so the correspondence on their file is really valuable in keeping children safe once we are out of their lives.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Feel comfortable to seek consultation with CSC prior to referral – designated teachers will need to seek advice and guidance over complex matters and determining whether a referral is appropriate or whether further intervention can be planned by school or other involved agencies.</td>
<td>When transferring the case from Access and Assessment to Children in Need Service or stepping down to Young Hackney, involve the school in transfer meetings and chair these meetings in a way that formulates clear plans and facilitates good sharing of information. As much as is possible, meetings with school staff should only be convened during the school term. However, schools will also need to realise that in certain crisis situations it may not be possible to restrict meetings to the school term only, and in such cases advice should be sought from HLT Safeguarding Team (020 8820 7325) in regard to information sharing and attendance at meetings.</td>
<td>Ensure availability for relevant meetings in regard to the support network for child and family, and communicate developments or changes to levels of support to those other key educational staff who have involvement with the family. Even when CSC is no longer involved in a child’s life there will often continue to be multi-agency provision so the principles of good joint working will continue to apply.</td>
<td>If you think you may need to make a referral you are welcome to call the First Access &amp; Screening Team to discuss your concerns. Professionals should of course consult with their organisation’s safeguarding lead but if still unsure as to whether the threshold is met for statutory social work involvement or if the matter seems urgent then please call the First Access &amp; Screening Team to discuss your safeguarding concerns. If you think a child may need enhanced support then please refer to the Hackney Child Wellbeing Framework on page 5</td>

The following flowchart shows the paths for joint safeguarding between CSC and schools. More information on the service can be found in the service directory section on page 57.

Schools with existing child protection concerns
- Concerns raised within school to the Designated Safeguarding Lead (DSL).
- DSL to contact CSC if concerns require a statutory social work intervention.
- If case not already allocated to CSC, the First Access & Screening Team (FAST) signpost or progress to assessment.
- FAST to inform the school of the outcome.

Children’s Social Care with existing child protection concerns
- CSC begin to undertake an assessment of a child/young person.
- Social work unit to inform school of CSC involvement to enable the sharing of information.
- If case is already allocated to CSC, FAST to provide school with social work unit contact details.
- FAST will direct the query to the social work unit.
- Social work unit to inform schools of key meetings e.g. CP conferences/core groups/CIN/PEP meetings/LAC reviews and keep schools informed of any changes in the child’s circumstances. Schools to keep social work unit informed of any safeguarding issues, meetings and changes in circumstances.
- CSC end involvement, school is informed of work undertaken, involved in decision-making and involved in the plan for closure.
- School continues to monitor the child along with partner agencies.

Escalation Process
- If issues arise, DSL/Consultant Social Worker should in first instance resolve through discussion and/or meeting.
- If these issues cannot be resolved, service manager/head teacher/executive head to discuss.
- If issues continue not to be resolved, executive head/service manager to discuss.
- Throughout any discussions around issues HLT can be consulted for advice.

Social Work in Schools Project

The Social Work in Schools Project was launched in eight Hackney schools in November 2014. The project adopts a holistic family approach that works with schools and other community resources. The team uses creative, practical and measurable interventions with families to improve parenting, behaviours and aspirations through improved access to learning. Through the project, the social work service is able to gain an understanding of each school, the needs of the children and how to better effect change through the schools.

The project aims to:

- identify children who need additional help at the earliest stage
- bring social work closer and sooner to the children and their families
- reduce the number of children who need protecting through a statutory process or by being in care
- ensure that if necessary, protective action is initiated in a timely and effective way
- build parental confidence so that they are able and informed of services
- integrate families more in universal/targeted services in their community

The Social Work Intervention Team consists of senior social workers, social workers and family practitioners who plan and implement interventions for the whole family in conjunction with any other professionals involved.

Children who are in need of social work intervention to break down the barriers that exist to learning are identified through a joint safeguarding audit with the senior social worker and the designated school lead. The team will plot who is involved with the child and the family and will work to develop a co-ordinated, effective approach to family intervention or, where relevant, signpost the family to community/targeted resources.

The project is currently working with the following schools in Hackney:

- Morningside Primary School
- Berger Primary School
- St Dominic’s Catholic Primary School
- Hoxton Garden Primary School
- Whitmore Primary School
- De Beauvoir Primary School
- Mandeville Primary School
- Daubeney Primary School
- Gainsborough Primary School
- City Academy
- Bridge Academy
- Cardinal Pole Secondary School

If you would like any further information about the project please contact Monica.Mathias@hackney.gov.uk or 020 8356 6207.

Hackney’s Local Offer (Special Educational Needs and Disabilities)

The Local Offer is a way of providing parents, families and young people with information for people aged 0-25 who have Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) including what support and services are available locally and what out of borough services can be accessed if services are not available locally. Services include education, health and care and can be universal, targeted or specialist but must be relevant to those aged 0-25 with SEND.

The Local Offer information includes articles that help parents, young people and professionals working with them navigate the systems that provide help, advice and support.

There are three aspects to the Local Offer information:

- service entries
- articles e.g. on processes
- resources pages for children and young people, parents and SEND professionals

Hackney’s Local Offer is provided here: www.hackneylocaloffer.co.uk

There are also opportunities to receive Local Offer information from the Local Offer Co-ordinator at events face-to-face termly at Hackney Ark’s Resource Centre at specific sessions for parents or young people that have difficulty in accessing the internet.

The Local Offer is a new way of working related to the SEND reforms. It is constantly developing. Parents and young people are actively encouraged to feedback, comment and make suggestions that can help shape the Local Offer and make it more responsive to the needs of those who use it.

For further information about the local offer please email localoffer@learningtrust.co.uk

Service description
The Re-Engagement Unit (REU) is a school support service that provides a rapid response to all maintained primary schools in Hackney. It undertakes a systemic approach to delivering support to children at risk of exclusion, and works in a close relationship with the school, family and child to create a framework which can help to deliver long term change.

The REU is made up of multi-skilled education professionals with outstanding experience of practical strategies for inclusion.

Schools can expect:
- Prompt, skilled support in developing personalised, consistent approaches to include at-risk children
- Each child to have a unique pathway and plan depending upon their needs. Every REU plan will be guided by up to three targets and cover a period of at least 6 weeks of intervention
- A 3-week review, which will take place to ensure there is an opportunity to reflect on progress and redirect any resources
- A formal 6-week review together with the team around the child. The work and impact of the REU will be reviewed
- Where appropriate, the REU to draw on and access a broad range of partnership services. This could include working with the school’s educational psychologist, Young Hackney, CSC or CAMHS.

Access criteria
Maintained Hackney primary schools can make referrals for support from the unit for any of the children on their roll. The unit would expect the school to have taken all reasonable internal measures to personalise the pastoral approach for the child. Most notably, the child would usually be expected to be at the second review of a PSP with no or limited progress being made.

Referrals
The service only takes referrals directly from maintained Hackney primary schools.

Referrals are initiated by contacting Ebru Karatufek and completing a Re-Engagement Unit referral form.

It helps to prevent obesity and to support families with overweight children to improve their health by making changes to their lifestyle. It supports families to change old habits and to achieve their healthy lifestyle goals.   Each young person will receive a comprehensive medical, nursing and psychological assessment, leading to a bespoke individual care and treatment plan.

  In all cases, the service works closely and creatively in partnership with the young person, their family, community services and other agencies such as local authorities, schools and colleges, to improve their quality of life and help them find new ways of living and coping with their difficulties. |
| Access criteria | • The centre treats young people with acute and severe forms of mental illness. These include major mood disorders, psychosis, complex neuropsychiatric disorders, eating disorders, severe obsessive compulsive disorders and borderline personality disorders.

  • The age criteria is 12–18, but younger patients can be considered on a case-by-case basis. |
| Referrals | • Referrals will only be accepted if supported by a consultant psychiatrist.

  • Emergency admissions will be accepted 24 hours a day and young people detained under the Mental Health Act will be treated.

  • As much clinical information as possible should be provided to assist the initial discussions. If the Coborn cannot accept the referral (if, for example, there are no available beds), the referrer will be informed immediately. The team are able to discuss treatment options and consider planned admissions. |

City and Hackney Safeguarding Children Board (CHSCB)

The Children Act 2004 requires local areas to have a Safeguarding Children Board which must be independent and have an independent chair. The City of London and Hackney have a joint board. All local statutory agencies must be members of the Board, as well as some private and voluntary sector agencies. The Board also has two lay members representing the community.

The Board’s role is to:

- ensure that each agency’s policies, procedures and actions to safeguard children and promote their welfare are effective
- coordinate what the agencies do to safeguard children and promote their welfare, because children are better supported and protected when agencies work together.

To fulfil its role in ensuring that children are safeguarded and their welfare is promoted, the Board undertakes the following:

- Developing policies and procedures such as:
  - guidance on levels of risk and actions to take when there are concerns that a child is being harmed through neglect or abuse
  - training for people who work with, or whose work impacts on, children, parents and families
  - guidance on recruiting and supervising people who work with children to provide a safe service
  - investigating allegations about people who work with children
  - ensuring the safety and welfare of children who are privately fostered
  - ensuring that a review of each death of a child normally resident in the LSCB’s area is undertaken by the Child Death Overview Panel
  - assisting cooperation with neighbouring services to safeguard children and promote their welfare
- Raising awareness about the need to safeguard children and promote their welfare, how to do it effectively and encouraging partners to do so
- Monitoring and evaluating the effectiveness of what is done by all local agencies to safeguard children and promote their welfare
- Helping to plan services for children in the local area
- Undertaking reviews of serious cases and advising the local authority and all other agencies on the lessons to be learned.

The Safeguarding Children Board publishes an annual report on the effectiveness of safeguarding children and promoting their welfare in the local area, based on the performance and outcomes for local services. The report identifies where improvements can be made to safeguard children and promote their welfare and describes the actions which are being taken to address them, as well as other proposals for action and lessons from reviews. The report also lists the contributions made by member agencies and how the budget was spent. All member agencies have an obligation to provide the board with reliable resources (including finance) to enable the board to be strong and effective.

Service description

The service seeks to build young people’s social and emotional capabilities through the process of personal and social development. Work is both universal and targeted and places emphasis on engaging vulnerable young people, for example:

- Those not in education, training or employment or at risk of exclusion or disengagement from learning.
- Young people who offend, or at risk of offending or who are victims or perpetrators of youth violence.
- Those at risk of CSE or who display harmful sexual behaviour.
- Young people presenting with additional needs/SEND.
- Young carers.
- Those at risk in terms of their physical or emotional health and well-being.
- LAC and care leavers.
- Young black men, and other culturally specific groups.

The service both provides and commissions a range of open access and structured creative and adventurous activities, and enables young people to become positively and actively involved in the wider community, thereby raising young people’s aspirations, encouraging active citizenship and leadership, and aiding their transition to adulthood.

The Young Hackney Service operates across the borough, delivering activities, structured preventative and diversionary programmes and individual support through a network of 5 Young Hackney Hubs, playgrounds, community halls, local VCS provision, and schools, as well as providing support within the family home.

Young Hackney works with Children’s Social Care and HLT and other partners including but not limited to:

- Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service (CAMHS)
- Youth Justice Team & Integrated Gangs Unit
- Probation Services
- Voluntary and Community Sector providers
- Schools and Education, Training and Employment Services.

Continued overleaf
Youth Hubs
All Young Hackney Hubs are well-equipped, friendly and with a welcoming atmosphere. Two of the Young Hackney hubs are provided ‘in house’ (Forest Road and The Edge), with three commissioned to the community and voluntary sector (Hoxton Hall, Stoke Newington and Concorde). All hubs provide access to support alongside a varied programme of structured activities, often leading to a certificate, qualification or award (e.g. Asdan, NGB sports awards or the Duke of Edinburgh Award).

Playgrounds
Adventure Playgrounds are spaces dedicated solely to children’s play. The indoor and outdoor area is enclosed by a boundary which signals that activities such as digging, making fires, building and demolishing dens - activities not usually condoned in other areas where children play – are provided for and encouraged.

Information, advice and guidance
The service works to improve young people’s access to formal and informal information, advice and guidance provided by staff with a good level of local knowledge and resources with the support of specialist agencies.

An out of school careers service is commissioned for community based delivery via Young Hackney Hubs and Job Centre Plus, delivering structured programmes, drop-ins and 1:1 interviews conducted in Young Hackney Hubs and other community venues.

Substance misuse, health and emotional well-being services are embedded within delivery to ensure young people are able to access help at the earliest opportunity.

Work experience & work related learning
Work related learning is provided by Young Hackney to enable young people to understand the world of work following their compulsory education.

Staff provide workshops, events and individual support to enable young people to explore the choices available to them and the skills they require to be attractive to employers. Through exposure to employers, work experience opportunities and access to part time paid employment (Hackney 100), young people are supported to consider their learning options and career paths.

| Service description | Young Hackney is founded on the belief that all young people in the borough have the ability to achieve, regardless of their background and that, given the right set of circumstances and a positive range of influences, they will reach their full potential.

The services bring together the skills and expertise of a range of professionals into Young Hackney Units – self-directed, multi-skilled work teams where expertise is shared.

The challenge for Young Hackney is to provide opportunities for all to thrive, while giving appropriate support to those young people who need it, when they need it, recognising that some young people require more intensive and persistent support than others.

A ‘single front door’ approach
The system is designed to give young people and their parents easier access to services: a ‘single front-door’ approach. Young people are able to start their journey wherever Young Hackney workers are based, whether this is at a youth hub, a school or within a youth health clinic.

Units are based in the Young Hackney hubs and at other venues in the community where they work closely with schools and other universal services.

Young Hackney’s Universal Services
There are five Young Hackney youth hubs:
- Forest Road
- The Edge
- Stoke Newington
- Hoxton Hall
- Concorde. |
Service description

Staff at each of the four neighbourhood centres, linked to the central hub at Forest Road, work to develop partnership arrangements with other youth providers to ensure a local youth offer that is:

- diverse
- meeting the full spectrum of young people’s needs
- available at times when young people want to access services.

The nature of partnerships with other agencies varies but will typically involve a mix of shared delivery, signposting and hosting for non-council providers delivering services from Young Hackney hubs.

Details about the wide range of provision on offer can be found at the Young Hackney web page: www.younghackney.org

Young Hackney’s Universal Plus and Universal Partnership Plus offer

Some young people and their families will require additional coordinated support to ensure that they reach their potential and avoid harm.

The same workers that already know the young person and family can assess, plan and deliver packages of support that, where appropriate, involve a range of skills and disciplines.

Access criteria

Any young person aged between 8 and 18 can access Young Hackney activities.

Referrals

No referrals are necessary for activities – provision is open-access.

| Young Hackney is committed to ensuring that one of the legacies of the 2012 Olympics is widened participation and enjoyment of sports for children and young people in the borough. To achieve this, the Youth and School Sports Team has been formed and works closely with schools and other providers help build the interest and infrastructure required.

One of the strengths of the Youth and School Sports Unit is its dynamic nature which allows the team to respond appropriately to the needs and interests of children and young people. Staff work closely with schools to provide enhanced out of school hours opportunities for children and young people, including out of school hours learning and competitions.

Support is provided to the majority of primary schools to develop:

- high quality physical education as part of the curriculum
- competitive school sport opportunities for those young people who want to take part
- activities designed to meet the needs of the least active students.

The team also provides training, support and opportunities through work experience, leadership and officiating for young people as the stepping stone for further coaching/volunteer/leadership opportunities. Our aim is to increase young people’s participation in community sport by creating and strengthening links with sports clubs, leisure facilities and community providers.

The Participation Team offer opportunities to support young people to become directly involved in service review and delivery as youth-led inspectors, peer educators, peer mentors, volunteering or through establishment of their own social enterprises. This engagement of young people at a local level is driven through the Hackney Youth Parliament, Hackney Gets Heard (Children in Care Council), Youth Forums, Youth Opportunity Fund Panel and Youth Led Inspections. These opportunities are the platform for young people to be involved in decision making and social action regionally and nationally, for example through the UK Youth Parliament and National Citizen Service.

Service description

Provided Services is responsible for providing in-house services for older people and vulnerable adults following an assessment of need by a care manager or social worker.

Provided Services aim to work with the most complex and at risk service users ensuring their dignity, choice and respect are the cornerstones of all that it does. All services strive to address diversity in their delivery to the communities of Hackney.

Our philosophy is to be the quality provider of care service in Hackney. Provided Services will maximise service users’ independence whilst promoting their dignity and respecting their choices. Outcome-Focussed Care Plans will be provided in a flexible and sensitive way to meet the health, cultural, social and religious needs of service users. Services are provided jointly and in partnership to provide a more competent service to represent best value in quality and cost.

Provided Services are organised as follows:

- Housing with Care Services – Housing with Care Schemes (HwC)
  Enable vulnerable adults, usually aged 55 and older, to live as independently as possible in the community. Our aim is provide a supportive environment which promotes independence and avoids the need for residential or nursing care for as long as possible. In HwC each service user has a tenancy for a one-bedroom flat with their own front door, and in most schemes there is 24-hour care on-site.

- Interim Care
  Offers a short term reablement environment for adults and older people. The philosophy is based on promoting independence through active rehabilitation to enable people to leave hospital and return home to live as independently as possible. People with high level needs and housing issues are able to receive a short term placement.

- Day Services
  There are two main day service buildings and a number of satellite buildings are also used in which activities to provide physical and mental stimulation are offered. In addition, our award-winning development Homeshare Day Care allows people unable to access these services to spend the day in the home of a trained volunteer to gain all the benefits of a smaller group.

- Community Meals on Wheels (MOW)
  Meals on Wheels delivers nutritious hot meals every day of the year to older people and people with disabilities living in the community.

|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Service description | Occupational Therapy aims to help those with physical impairments to maximise their level of independence and wellbeing. We provide occupational therapy services, completing assessments of functional ability, advising on and providing specialist equipment, and making minor adaptations.

Under the Care Act 2014, Occupational Therapy is part of preventative services. We aim to maintain and reduce care needs by providing early intervention – carrying out a needs led assessment and providing advice, support, equipment and adaptations as required.

We aim to support existing carers and reduce the need for large packages of care by maintaining maximum function for the cared for individual.

The local authority works with local health providers to assess need and provide appropriate support and promote independence. This may include arranging for aids or adaptations or referring service users to other agencies that can also assist with a focus on rehabilitation and support.

We manage budget expenditure for disabled adaptations for both private sector housing and Hackney Homes properties.

We are responsible for Hackney’s Integrated Community Equipment Services (ICES), including Telecare across health and social care.

Telecare services are part of the Occupational Therapy team and aim to maintain and prevent hospital admission and reduce care packages by supporting people in the community to live safely and securely. We assess for and provide telecare equipment and response services

Sensory Team offers assessment and rehabilitation to persons with a sensory need to support them in accessing their community and education and maximising their level of functional ability and mobility.

Hackney also maintains a register of those who are blind, have a visual impairment (not correctable with glasses), are deaf or hard of hearing, and those with a dual sensory loss.

Our team includes senior practitioners, occupational therapists, occupational therapy assistants, Sensory rehabilitation officers and a Telecare officer. |
| Access criteria | Under the Care Act 2014, anyone over 18 years of age and a permanent ordinary resident in the borough of Hackney may be entitled to an assessment to determine whether they have eligible care and support needs. |

Service description

The Perinatal Service and Margaret Oates Mother and Baby Unit provide care to women who have moderate to severe mental health difficulties in pregnancy or within the first year after childbirth. These may be pre-existing illnesses or have their onset in the perinatal period.

Most of the referrals to this service come antenatally and most are from Maternity Services via Homerton University Hospital Foundation Trust (HUHFT). Women who book their pregnancy at HUHFT are asked questions about any previous, current or family history of mental health difficulties. These questions are from National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE) guidance (antenatal and postnatal mental health). If there are previous, current or a family history of mental health difficulties, a woman can consent to a referral to this service.

Members of the team include professionals from nursing, psychology and medical backgrounds. They offer an assessment in the first instance and a plan of care which usually includes working alongside other agencies such as Community Mental Health Teams, Maternity Services, Primary Care and Children’s Social Care to provide the best service for the woman, her infant and family. Mothers can be admitted to the unit when this is assessed as necessary. The unit has ten beds.

Access criteria

Women with mental health difficulties who are either pregnant or within the first postnatal year.

Referrals

- Most referrals to this service come antenatally via Maternity Services at Homerton University Hospital Foundation Trust, however any primary or secondary professional can make a referral
- Direct referrals are accepted via fax or via CHAMHRAS.
