Care and support is changing for the better

From April 2015, the new Care Act will help make care and support more consistent across England.

If you receive care and support, or you support someone as a carer, you could benefit from the changes. To find out more, visit gov.uk/careandsupport or contact focus independent adult social work.
Care and support is changing for the better

In England, millions of people provide unpaid care or support to an adult family member or friend.

If this sounds like you, from April 2015, changes to the way care and support is provided in England mean you may be able to get more help so that you can carry on caring and look after your own well being.

Find out how you might benefit from the changes. If the person you care for lives in North East Lincolnshire, contact the Single Point of Access on 01472 256256 or visit www.services4.me.uk/careact
If the person you care for lives outside of North East Lincolnshire, contact the council of the person you care for.
Care and support is changing for the better

The legal basis of care and support is changing for the better. From April 2015 the new Care Act will help make care and support more consistent across England.

If you receive care and support, or you support someone as a carer, you don’t need to be reassessed because of the new law. You will be contacted at the time of your usual annual review to discuss your needs. If your needs change before this, contact the Single Point of Access on 01472 256256 or visit www.services4.me.uk/careact
Care and support is changing for the better

The legal basis of care and support is changing for the better. From April 2015 the new Care Act will help make care and support more consistent across England.

If you don’t currently receive care and support, and believe you have needs that are not being met, contact the Single Point of Access on 01472 256256 or visit www.services4.me.uk/careact