General Sound Discrimination – Body Percussion
See pages 20 to 23 for ways to help children develop an awareness of sounds and rhythms

Book of the Month: We’re Going on a Bear Hunt by Michael Rosen and Helen Oxenbury

During snack time (or any other time), play ‘Guess the Sound’ game.

Ask the children to close their eyes while you make a sound using a part of your body, e.g. clap your hands, click your fingers or shuffle your feet.

The children have to guess what you are doing.

The children can then have a turn to be the leader.
