Being able to communicate is not just about talking – listening is an essential skill for talking and learning.

ACTIVITY

Children need to listen to different sounds and make different movements e.g. you tap a tambourine once it means stop, you tap it twice it means go, if you play it fast it means move fast, slow means move slowly.

Children could move like different animals, toys or machines!