

Stay and Study at Hillcroft College

Empowering Women Through Education

Hillcroft College, South Bank, Surbiton, Surrey, KT6 6DF

020 8399 2688

Hillcroft has been supporting women to change their lives through education since 1920.

If you are looking for a new skill, direction or just want to improve your talents, Hillcroft can help you.

We're a little bit different from other colleges because we specialise in intensive, residential education designed specifically for women aged 19 plus.

We're a small college where the friendly staff team really understands the needs of women learners and provides a wide range of wraparound support to help you focus on achieving your potential, whatever your starting point may be.
