

Could £250 help your family?

We help hundreds of families every year, with grants for essential items like clothing, bedding, shoes and white goods.
If you work or have worked in any of the businesses below within the last 9 years and you have a child aged 0-18 years old, you could apply for an FTCT grant.

Our criteria covers a broad range of businesses within the fashion and textile industry, including, retailers, manufacturers, wholesalers, distributors and supermarkets.

Alterations Shop

Bridalwear shop

Bridalwear Manufacturer

Clothes Retailer which sells any type of clothing for women, men, children or infants

Clothes Manufacturer which makes any type of clothing for women, men, children or infants

Charity Shop where the person was a paid employee

Carpet Shop (including manufacturers and fitters)

Craft Shop which sells any products made from fabric

Department Store which sells clothing for women, men, children or infants, like John Lewis or Selfridges

Distribution Centre handling either fashion or textiles

Fabric shop for either fashion or interior fabrics

Hoisery Manufacturer

Haberdashers or a shop which sells craft supplies

Head office for a company which retails or manufacturers any type of fashion or textiles

Interior Textile Manufacturer

including soft furnishings and carpets

Knitwear Retailer and manufacturer

Market Stall which sells clothing

Online Retailer which sells clothing, like Asos or Very.co.uk

School where the person works as a fashion or textile teacher

Supermarket which sells clothing, like Asda or Sainsbury's

Soft Accessories Retailer which sells accessories made out of fabric or leather including gloves, bags and scarves

Soft Accessories Manufacturer which makes accessories made out of fabric or leather including gloves, bags and scarves

Specialist Clothing Retailer selling industry specific clothing including catering, military or ecclesiastical

Textile Mill or manufacturer whether for fashion or interiors

University where the person lectures in fashion or textiles

If your job is not listed here, don't worry as your role may be covered. So, if in doubt, please call Dora on 0300 123 9002